

Self taught how to subscribe Pittsburgh Association of the Deaf news/events

1. Navigate to find 'Subscribe' link in pghdeafclub.org website. There are two different ways to find:
 - a. In Home page, you can find word of Subscribe in the orange button.
 - b. You can find word Subscribe in most top right corner in any page in this website

2. In Subscribe page, Enter your personal email address as shown in screenshot below and hit SUBMIT green button.

SUBSCRIBE

Do you want our P.A.D. news, announcements, and other events to go through your inbox email? Sure, you can! It sends the information instantly than our quarterly newsletter, PADette come in later.

PAD is in partnership with FeedBurner, a free news feed management provider to build the email subscription system.

To follow the steps on how to subscribe PAD news/events from your email:

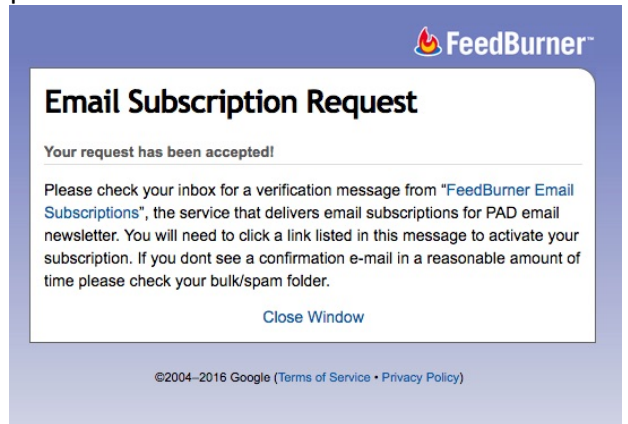

1. Look at the YELLOW box bottom.
2. Enter your email address in text box and hit 'Subscribe' button.
3. The pop-up window appears. Feedburner will request you to verify the message. Follow this step.
4. Feedburner will send your email for another final verification message. Check your email.
5. In that email message, click the web address to activate your email subscription.

If you didn't follow those steps above, you will not get email subscription from PAD news announcements and upcoming events.

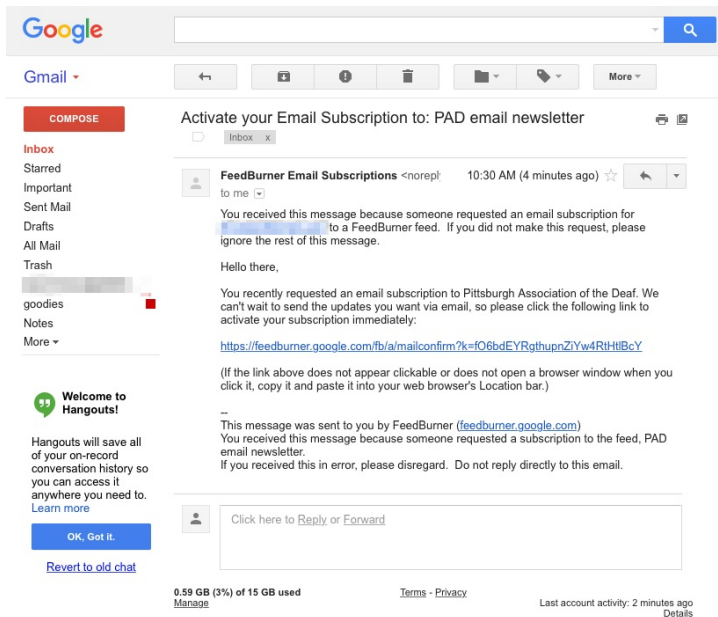

- It will go to next page. You need first step of the verification to prove that you are human. Follow the word picture to type in the box field and click Complete Subscription Request

- Then you will see the message next page. That means you proved that you are human. The email has been to you, please check your email provider.

- Go to inbox in your YOUR email provider (this screen shot show GMAIL for an example) Click the web address link in this email for second and final verification to activate your email address.

- Once you clicked this link, you are successfully two verification steps and you will receive your PAD subscription emails going forward!

